Sarah provides sophisticated estate and tax planning counsel to individuals, families, and business owners with respect to wealth preservation and management. This often involves utilizing estate, gift and generation-skipping tax transfer techniques, and structuring trusts and similar estate planning vehicles in accordance with clients' varied values and priorities.

Sarah views each estate plan as an ongoing and evolving long-term relationship. This relationship allows her to work knowledgeably, creatively, and efficiently as clients' objectives and circumstances evolve, and local and federal laws change.

Sarah earned her JD from Boston College Law School and her BA from the University of Vermont.
