

Matthew W. Kulju

ASSOCIATE

Matthew is an associate in the Chicago office and a member of the Corporate & Securities Practice.

Practices

Corporate & Securities
— Fund Formation
— Institutional Investors
— US Market Entry and International Transactions

International

Finland

Education

University of Wisconsin Law School, JD, magna cum laude, 2022

Michigan State University, MA, 2018

University of Wisconsin-Madison, BA, 2014

Offices

Chicago

Phone

312.258.5663

Email

matt.kulju@afslaw.com

Matthew has drafted memoranda on various federal regulations, such as the Administrative Procedure Act and American Arbitration Association procedural rules. He has also assisted in completing legal research, drafting memoranda, and due diligence in a wide range of legal matters including tax, mergers and acquisitions, and anti-money laundering. Matthew's background in higher education gives him an ability to connect with, understand, and analyze the unique goals of each client, which fosters his creative and relational approach to guiding clients through the complexities of their legal issues.

Matthew is a proud member of OutFox, ArentFox Schiff's LGBTQ+ affinity group.

Publications

— "Significant New Private Fund Rules Adopted by SEC," ArentFox Schiff Alert (Sep. 11, 2023)

Professional Activities

Pro Bono Work

— Matthew has assisted a client in preparing a memo petitioning USCIS for asylum.

Life Beyond the Law

Outside of work, Matthew enjoys spoiling rotten his two dogs, attending live music, and eating his way through Chicago. A Wisconsinite at heart, he also loves cheering on his beloved Wisconsin Badgers, Green Bay Packers, and Milwaukee Bucks, but is slowly learning to love the Chicago Cubs.

Bar Admissions

Illinois