Alexis focuses her practice on a variety of corporate and real estate matters.

Alexis started at ArentFox Schiff as a summer associate. While in law school, she worked as a student attorney with the Entrepreneurship Law Clinic at Washington College of Law and as a judicial intern for the Honorable Carlos F. Acosta at the Montgomery County Circuit Court, 6th Judicial Circuit.

Prior to attending law school, Alexis was a paralegal at the Washington, DC office of a multinational law firm where she supported antitrust, product liability, regulatory, and patent matters. While working as a paralegal, she was seconded at the Children's Law Center, where she assisted with family law matters.

Life Beyond the Law

Outside of work, Alexis enjoys exercising, reading, trying new restaurants, and taking her labrador retriever, Millie, on walks.
